

We have found that the XM Satellite Radio traffic and weather channels to be very useful, especially when we are travelling. The information is always available, and we don't have to search for stations in an unfamiliar area of the country. Additionally, XM Satellite Radio provides service everywhere. This is especially useful here in Arizona where there are vast areas not served by broadcast radio.